

self-guided tour of Michigan

WITH INSIDER TIPS FROM U-M STUDENTS

We hope you enjoy this map, curated by current U-M students. Use it to take a self-guided driving tour at your convenience.

We know you're going to love it here!

"I really like the League! There's good food (you can use MBucks), coffee, and an insane variety of drinks. It's great for doing some work and grabbing a bite between classes."

- ELLE

"U-M has phenomenal resources for first-generation college students. There is a theme community and an entire meeting spot for first gens to gain access to TONS of resources."

- ALLIE

"The LSA Opportunity Hub is a fantastic resource for job and internship advice. The staff provided me invaluable support throughout my undergraduate studies in humanities."

- SARAH

"When I'm stressed and need a break, I go to the Law Quad. During the winter when it's snowing at night, it is the most beautiful and relaxing spot on campus!"

- ALLIE

"I was so happy when I discovered there are swings on North Campus!"

- CAITLYN

"The Arb is the best place to walk, run, hammock, lay in a sunny field, or play frisbee!"

- ALLY

"Spend time studying in the buildings where your classes are held. They usually have big, window-lit atriums with lots of tables and space to get work done in between classes!"

- YILIN

HOUSING

CENTRAL CAMPUS

- Betsy Barbour
- East Quadrangle
- Fletcher Hall
- Helen Newberry
- Henderson House
- Martha Cook Building
- North Quadrangle
- South Quadrangle
- West Quadrangle & Cambridge House

NORTH CAMPUS

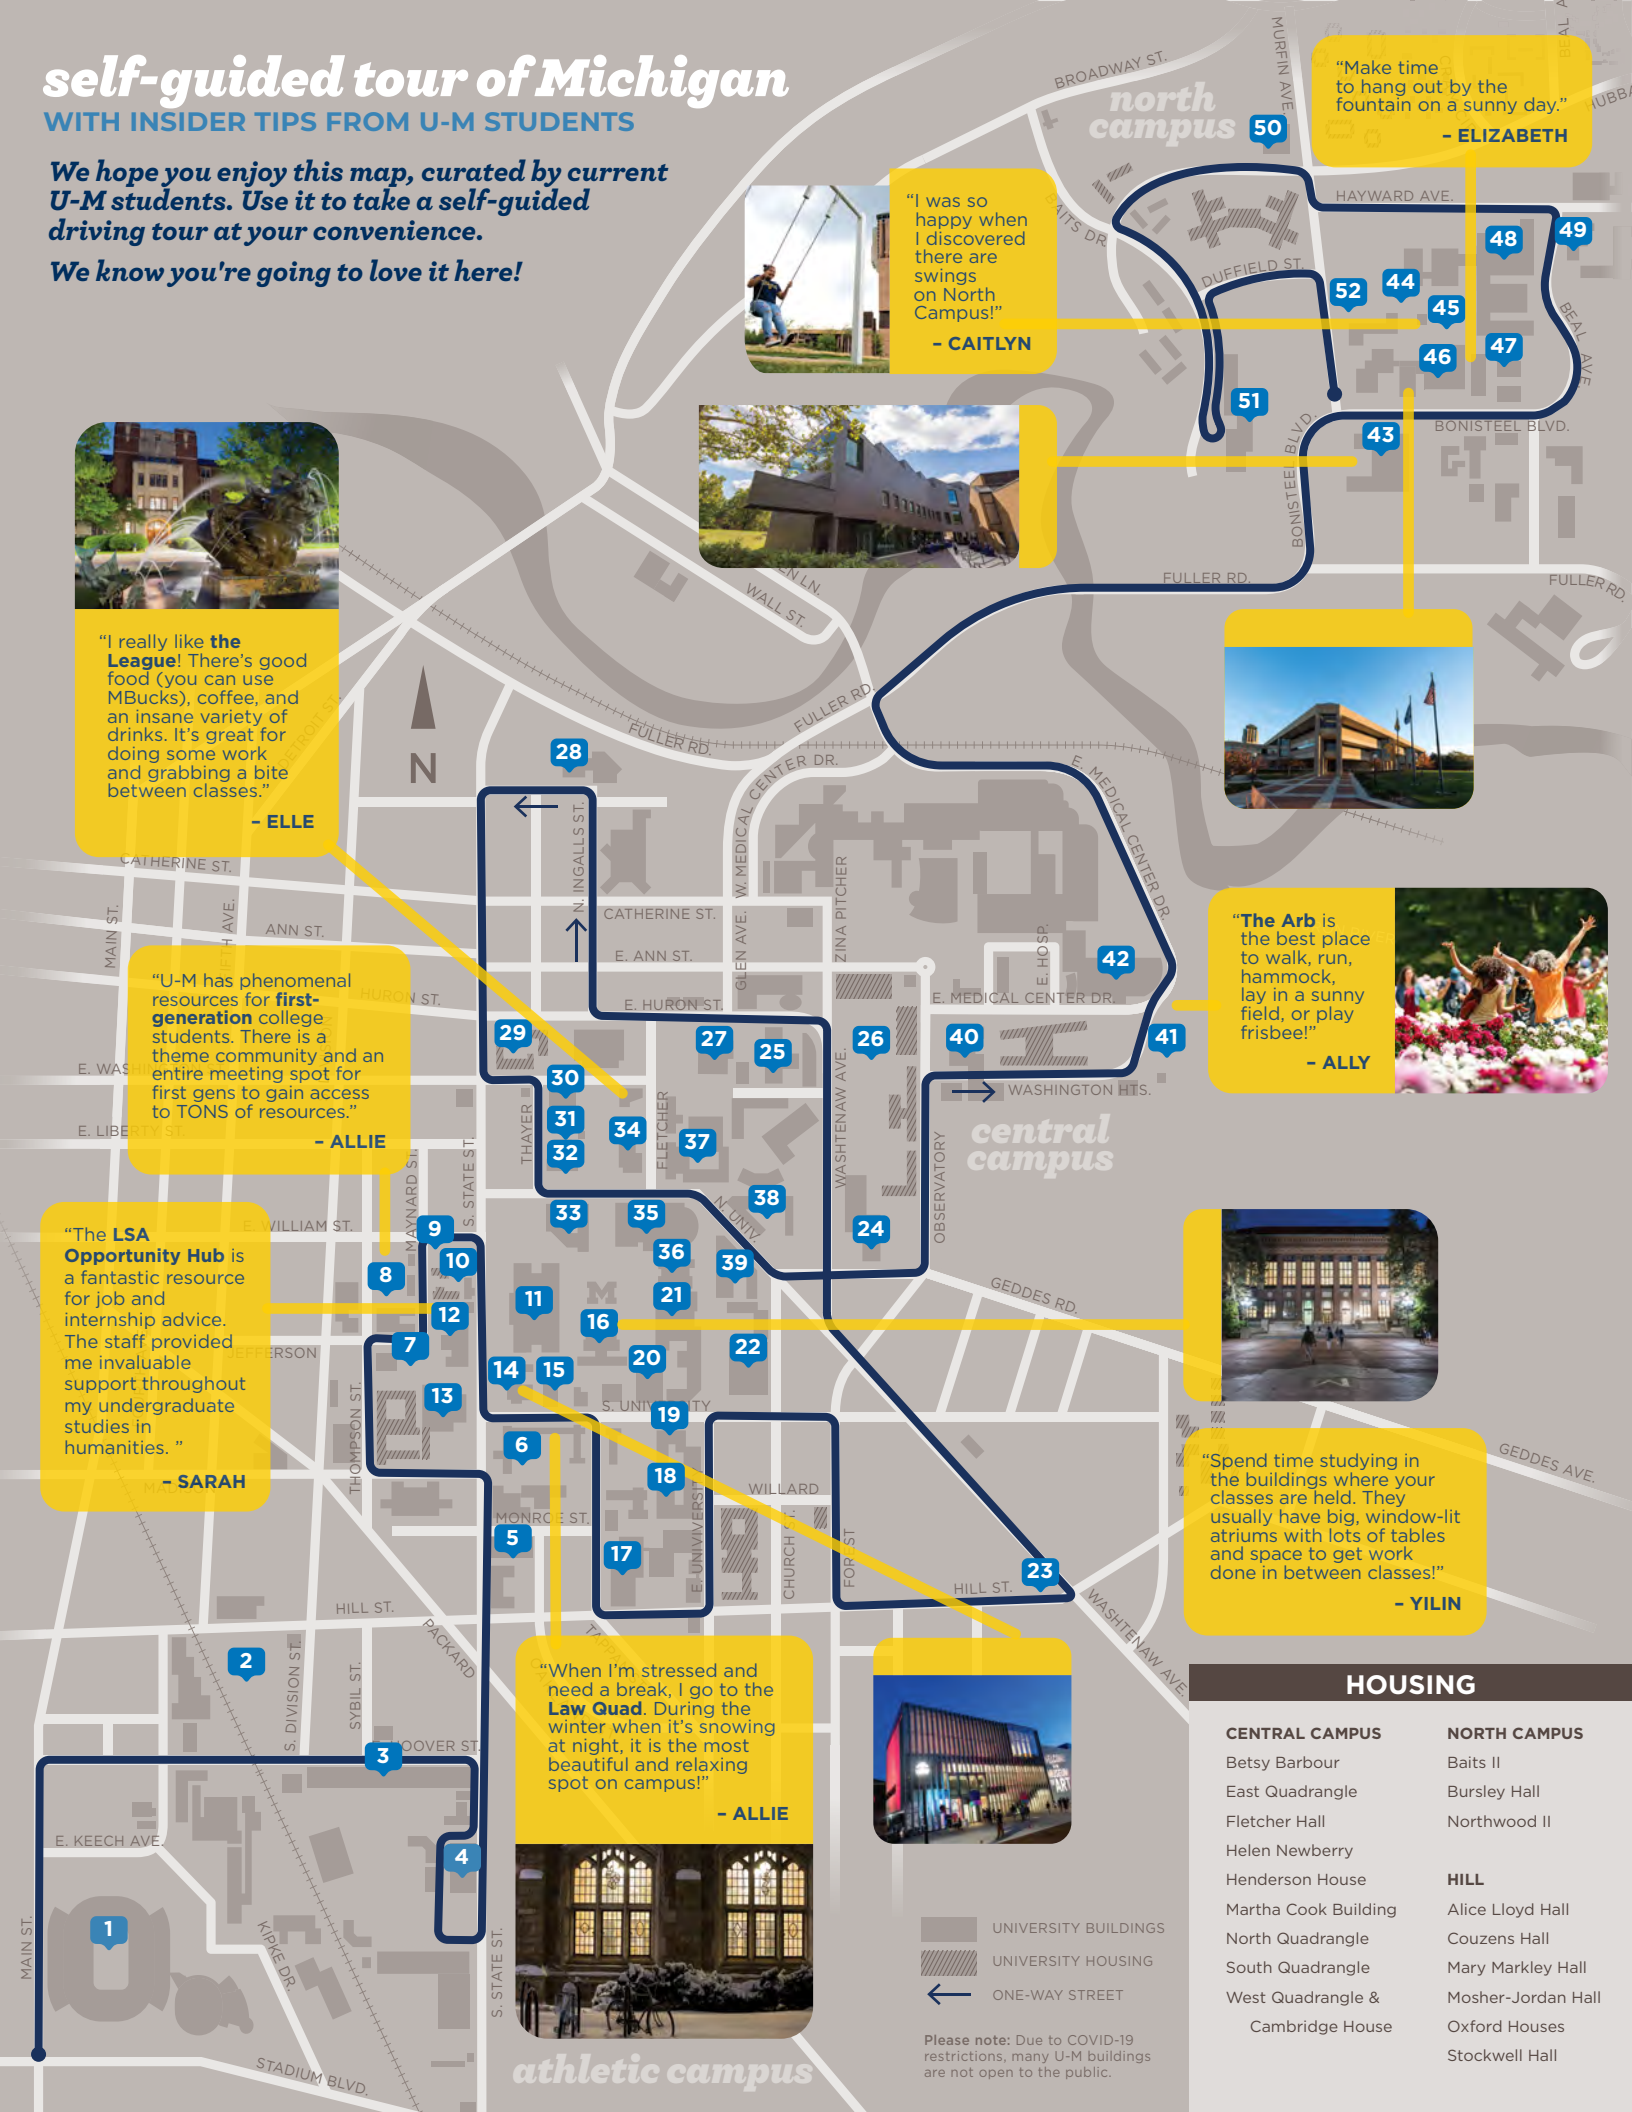

- Baits II
- Bursley Hall
- Northwood II

HILL

- Alice Lloyd Hall
- Couzens Hall
- Mary Markley Hall
- Mosher-Jordan Hall
- Oxford Houses
- Stockwell Hall

- UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS
- UNIVERSITY HOUSING
- ONE-WAY STREET

Please note: Due to COVID-19 restrictions, many U-M buildings are not open to the public.

ATHLETIC CAMPUS

- Michigan Stadium
Known as The Big House
1201 S. Main Street
Michigan's football stadium is the largest in the U.S.
- Elbel Field
336 Hill Street
With football, softball, and soccer fields plus sand volleyball courts, you can definitely get active here! The Michigan Marching Band practices here as well.
- Intramural Sports Bldg.
606 E. Hoover Avenue
Work out solo or with friends in this historical building that's been revamped with modern equipment.
- Yost Ice Arena
1116 S. State Street
Indoor ice arena where you can watch Michigan hockey or skate with friends.

CENTRAL CAMPUS

- Weill Hall
735 S. State Street
Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy
Nationally recognized leader in quantitative policy analysis, political and ethical analysis, social policy, communication, and leadership.
- Law Quad
625 S. State Street
Michigan Law
One of the top 10 law schools in the country, the Law School reading room is perfect for studying. (Note: The reading room is open to undergraduates. The law library is reserved for law students.)
- The Cube
You can let off some steam by spinning the large cube sculpture next to the Michigan Union. It's balanced on one corner and spins easily for how heavy it is.
- Student Activities Bldg.
515 Jefferson Street
Home of the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, Office of Financial Aid, and the International Center.
Passport to the Arts
Attend arts events throughout the community for free — pick up a Passport Voucher and exchange it for an event ticket at the box office.
Career Center Clothes Closet
Need business attire for an interview? The center has a wide selection of clothing donated for any student.
First Gen Gateway
First in your family to attend college? The Gateway can connect you with all of the resources and support available at U-M.

- Betsy Barbour Residence Hall
420 S. State Street
Maize and Blue Cupboard
Living on a tight budget? The Maize and Blue Cupboard provides resources, including food, kitchen, and personal and household items.
- Trotter Multicultural Center
428 S. State Street
The recently opened building serves as a hub for student activities and a symbol of the campus commitment to social justice and diversity.
- Angell Hall
419 State Street
Angell Hall Computing Site
Known as the Fishbowl
A convenient place to print papers before class or work at one of the many computers.
- LSA Bldg.
500 S. State Street

- College of Literature, Science, and the Arts
The largest of U-M's schools and colleges, the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts (or LSA as it's known on campus) features more than 100 degree programs in over 75 academic departments and programs.
- LSA Opportunity Hub
Exploring careers? You can go to drop-in hours, schedule an appointment, or attend group workshops.

- Michigan Union
530 S. State Street
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Wellness Zone
If you're feeling stressed, you can drop in to try out massage chairs, yoga, meditation, light therapy, and other wellness resources. Counseling at CAPS is open to all students.
Spectrum Center
A welcoming space where LGBTQ+ students and allies can find community and support.
- University of Michigan Museum of Art (UMMA)
525 S. State Street
With hundreds of works of art and a café, UMMA just might become one of your favorite hangouts.

- Tappan Hall
855 S. University Ave.
Fine Arts Library
A quiet spot open to all students. There's an excellent collection of art history resources.
- Hatcher Graduate Library
Commonly referred to as Hatcher or The Grad
913 S. University Ave
U-M's largest library is highlighted by its Special Collections Research Center of rare, original source materials.

- Ross School of Business
701 Tappan Street
The Ross School of Business — with numerous programs of study ranked among the best in the nation — enables students to make an impact in the real world.

- School of Education
610 E. University Ave.
SOE is education practitioners, policymakers, and researchers working toward a civically engaged society.

- School of Social Work
1080 S. University Ave.
The School of Social Work ranks first in the nation.

- Shapiro Undergraduate Library
Known as the UGLI
919 S. University Ave.
By far the most popular place to study on campus, has a café on the first floor and is open 24/7.

- Randall Laboratory
450 Church Street
If you take any physics classes, you'll definitely spend time here. There are balconies on the upper floors to study and hang out.

- East Hall
530 Church Street
You'll likely take your math and psych classes here in open, well-lit spaces.

- The Rock
Go make your mark on the Rock. Students and groups paint it different colors and write messages on it just about every day.

- Central Campus Recreation Bldg. (CCRB)
401 Washtenaw Ave

- Undergraduate Science Bldg.
204 Washtenaw Ave.
This building includes teaching laboratories for the Department of Molecular, Cellular, and Developmental Biology and interdisciplinary science instructional space and support.

- Palmer Field
401 Washtenaw Ave.
You can shoot some hoops, run the track, play tennis, and use the field for playing games and hanging out.

- The Power Center
U-M's most technically sophisticated performance space.

- School of Nursing
426 N. Ingalls Street
The U-M School of Nursing features recently renovated lab space and expansive classrooms for elevating the practice of nursing.

- North Quadrangle
School of Information
UMSI works to connect people, information, and technology.

- Modern Languages Bldg
812 Washington Street
Media Center
Room 2001
From sound mixing to HD video production, the Media Center has all the tools you need to produce digital media projects.

- Burton Tower
881 N. University Ave.
You can hear the bells from Burton Tower all over Central Campus as they ring at regular times throughout the day.

- Hill Auditorium
825 N. University Ave.
Lots of free concerts in a gorgeous concert hall. It's a great way to experience live performances.

- School of Kinesiology
830 N. University Avenue
Having recently moved into a building in the heart of Central Campus, the school of Kinesiology now boasts more than 245,000 sq. feet of classroom, study, and lab space.

- Michigan League
911 N. University
Great place to connect with friends. You can enjoy meals or snacks at Maizie's on the first floor.

- School of Dentistry
The #1 dental school in the country.

- Chemistry Bldg.
930 N. University Ave.
Both the basement and the Science Learning Center are great places to study

- Dana Bldg.
440 Church Street

- School for Environment and Sustainability
SEAS prepares leaders willing to take on urgent environmental issues and transform the future.

- Biological Sciences Bldg.
1105 N. University Ave.
Museum of Natural History
Take time out to explore the dinosaur exhibits and planetarium and grab a bite at Darwin's cafe.

- School of Pharmacy
U.S. News & World Report ranked the University of Michigan College of Pharmacy among the best in the nation.

- School of Public Health
Ranked among the top five schools of public health in the country.

- Nichols Arboretum
Known as the 'Arb'
1610 Washington Heights
Located on the Hill, the Arb has trails, peony gardens, and open spaces to relax and enjoy nature.

- Michigan Medicine
Michigan Medicine is home to one of the largest health care campuses in Michigan. It has been the site of many groundbreaking medical and technological advancements since the Medical School first opened in 1850.

NORTH CAMPUS

- Art and Architecture Bldg.
2000 Bonisteel Blvd.

- Stamps School of Art & Design
The U-M Stamps School of Art & Design offers a unique education within the University of Michigan, focusing on creative practice as an engine for cultural change and innovation.

- Taubman College of Architecture & Urban Planning
Housed in the Art & Architecture Building on North Campus, the Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning has ample space to reimagine the world in which we live.

- Lurie Carillon
1230 Murfin Ave.
Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m., during carillon recitals at Lurie Tower, you can visit the bells on the second floor and the keyboard room on the third floor.

- Swings on North Campus
If you're looking for a way to de-stress between classes, head over to the swings on Gerstacker Grove.

- The Duderstadt Center
Commonly referred to as the Dude
2281 Bonisteel Blvd.
Many audio, digital, and fabrication studios here. Be sure to check out the 3D printer and the massive video game library!

- Michigan Engineering
Michigan Engineering's graduate and undergraduate programs rank 4th and 6th in the nation. The program is housed in numerous buildings near or next to U-M's North Campus Grove.

- GG Brown Laboratories
2350 Hayward Street
With a welcoming, open design, the GG Brown Laboratory features numerous classrooms and study spaces, as well as great views of North Campus.

- The Wave Field
Come run the waves created by Maya Lin, the artist known for the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, DC. This interactive sculpture is both a work of art and a playground.

- North Campus Recreation Bldg. (NCRB)
2375 Hubbard Road
Newly renovated with great facilities and equipment.

- Earl V. Moore Bldg.
1100 Baits Drive

- School of Music, Theatre & Dance
A top-ranked school, SMTD has extraordinary faculty that hail from a range of accomplished backgrounds in the arts.

- Stearns Collection of Musical Instruments
Check out historical and contemporary musical instruments from all over the world in exhibits throughout the Moore Building.

- Arthur Miller Theatre
1226 Murfin Avenue
Named after the esteemed American playwright and U-M alumnus, the Arthur Miller theatre features a courtyard format theatre to showcase both professional and student productions.

admissions.umich.edu
734-764-7433

Thanks for visiting!
We hope you come back!