We hope you enjoy this map, curated by current U-M students. Use it to take a self-guided driving tour at your convenience. We know you’re going to love it here!
Betsy Barbou
Residence Hall
420 S. State Street
Maize and Blue Cupboard
Living on a tight budget? The Maize and Blue Cupboard provides resources, including food, kitchen supplies, and personal and household items.

Trotter Multicultural Center
428 S. State Street
Trotter Multicultural Center also serves as a hub for student activities and a symbol of the University’s commitment to social justice and diversity.

Angell Hall
410 S. State Street
Angell Hall Computing Site
Known as the Fishbowl.

LSA Bldg.
540 S. State Street
College of Literature, Science, and the Arts
The largest of U-M’s schools and colleges, the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts (or LSA as it’s known on campus) features more than 100 degree programs in over 75 academic departments and programs.

LSA Opportunity Hub
Exploring careers? You can go to drop-in hours, schedule an appointment, or attend group workshops.

Michigan Union
530 S. State Street
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Wellness Zone
If you’re feeling stressed, you can go to drop-in hours, schedule an appointment, or attend group workshops.

Spectrum Center
A welcoming space where LGBTQ+ students and allies can find community and support.

University of Michigan Museum of Art (UMMA)
525 S. State Street
With hundreds of works of art and a café, UMMA just might become one of your favorite hangouts.

Tappan Hall
885 S. University Ave.
Fine Arts Library
A quiet spot open to all students. There’s an excellent collection of art history resources.

Hatcher Graduate Library
Commonly referred to as Hatcher in the Red.

Ross School of Business
701 Tappan Street
The Ross School of Business has numerous programs of study ranked among the best in the nation — enabling students to make a real impact in the world.

School of Education
610 E. University Ave.
SOE is dedicated to supporting practitioners, policymakers, and researchers working toward socially engaged society.

School of Social Work
1080 S. University Ave.
The School of Social Work ranks first in the nation.

Shapiro Undergraduate Library
On-campus TVs, the UGLI.

East Hall
530 Church Street
You’ll likely take your math and physics classes here in open, well-lit spaces.

The Rock
Go make your mark on the rocks. Sculptors and groups paint different colors and write messages on it just about every day.

Central Campus Recreation Bldg. (CRCB)
A great way to experience the largest health care campus in the world.

Undergraduate Science Bldg.
204 Washtenaw Ave.
This building includes teaching laboratories for the Department of Molecular Cell and Developmental Biology and interdisciplinary science classes in the Caspers Science and Public Policy Building.

Palmer Field
401 Washtenaw Ave.
You can go to drop-in hours, schedule an appointment, or attend group workshops.

The Power Center
U-M’s most technologically sophisticated performance space.

School of Nursing
426 N. Ingalls Street
The U-M School of Nursing features recently renovated lab space and expansive classroom space to elevate the practice of nursing.

North Quadrangle
School of Information
UMSI works to connect people, information, and technology.

Modern Languages Bldg
812 Washington Street
Media Center
Room 200
From sound mixing to HD video production, the Media Center has all the tools you need to produce digital media projects.

Burton Tower
881 N. University Ave.
You can hear the bells from Burton Tower all over Old Campus as they ring at regular times throughout the day.

Hill Auditorium
825 N. University Ave.
Lots of free concerts in a gorgeous concert hall. It’s a great way to experience music.

School of Kinesiology
630 N. University Avenue
Having recently moved into a building in the heart of Central Campus, the School of Kinesiology now boasts more than 245,000 sq. feet of classroom, study, and lab space.

Michigan League
911 N. University Ave.
Great place to connect with friends. You can enjoy meals or snacks at Maizie’s on the first floor.

School of Dentistry
The #1 dental school in the country.

Chemistry Bldg.
430 N. University Ave.
Both the basement and the Science Learning Center have great places to study.

Dana Bldg.
440 Church Street
School for Environment and Sustainability
SEAS prepares leaders willing to take on urgent environmental issues and transform the future.

Biological Sciences Bldg.
1105 N. University Ave.
Museum of Natural History
Take the time to explore the dinosaur exhibits and planetarium and grab a bite at Darwin’s cafe.

School of Pharmacy
U.S. News & World Report ranked the University of Michigan College of Pharmacy among the best in the nation.

School of Public Health
Ranks among the top five schools of public health in the country.

Nichols Arboretum
1610 Washington Heights
Located on the Hill, the Arb has trails, peony gardens, and open spaces to relax and enjoy nature.

Michigan Medicine
Michigan Medicine is home to one of the largest health care care centers in the world. It has been the site of many groundbreaking medical and technological advancements since the Medical School first opened in 1850.

Taubman College of Architecture & Urban Planning
Housed in the Art & Architecture Building on North Campus, the Taubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning has ample space to reimagine the work in which we live.

Lurie Carillon
2320 Muffin Ave.
Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m., during carillon recitals at Lurie Tower, you can visit the second floor and the keyboard room on the third floor.

Swings on North Campus
If you’re looking for a way to de-stress between classes, head over to the swings on Gerberoller Grove.

The Duderelor Center
Central Campus
Home of the dude.

GG Brown Laboratories
2350 Hayward Street
With an open interior design, the GG Brown Laboratory features numerous building classrooms and study spaces, as well as great views of North Campus.

The Wave Field
Come run the waves created by Maya Lin, the artist known for the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, DC. The wave is a dynamic, interactive sculpture that is both a work of art and a playground.

North Campus Recreation Bldg. (NCRB)
2375 Hubbard Road
Newly renovated with great facilities and equipment.

Earl V. Moore Bldg.
1100 Baits Drive
School of Music, Theatre & Dance
A top-ranked school, SMTD has extraordinary facilities that haul from a range of accomplished backgrounds in the arts.

Memorial in Washington, DC.
SMTD has extraordinary facilities that haul from a range of accomplished backgrounds in the arts.

Steans Collection of Musical Instruments
Check out the historical and contemporary musical instruments from all over the world in exhibits throughout the Moore Center for the Arts.

Arthur Miller Theatre
1226 Muffin Avenue
Named after the esteemed American playwright and U-M alumnus, the Arthur Miller Theatre features a courtyard format theatre to showcase both professional and student productions.